

NEWBURGH CHAMBER MUSIC

Carole Cowan, President

The 2008-2009 Season celebrates the Quadrecentennial voyage of Henry Hudson by featuring outstanding artists from the Hudson River Valley.

Sunday, November 2, 2008 - 3 p.m.

MUSIC ALIVE, Director Joan Tower

Chamber ensemble featuring student artists from Bard Conservatory will perform exciting compositions by Barber, Holst, and Piazzola, directed by noted composer and performer Joan Tower.

Saturday, February 21, 2009 - 3 p.m.

Snowdate: Sunday, February, 22, 3 p.m.

HARLEM STRING QUARTET

Continuing the tradition of presenting young string quartets, NCM is delighted to announce the return of the prize-winning Harlem String Quartet, playing works of Schubert, Haydn, Ellington, and Brahms.

Sunday, May 10, 2009, 3 p.m.

MOTHER'S DAY CONCERT

Internationally acclaimed violinist Elmar Oliveira is joined by guest artist Sandra Robbins, violist, and musicians of the Hudson Valley Philharmonic String Quartet to present the Martinů Madrigals for Violin and Viola, the Dvořák Terzetto for 2 Violins and Viola, and the Brahms String Quintet in G.

Carole Cowan, violin, Valentina Charlap-Evans, viola and Susan Seligman, cello

All concerts are at ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH
105 Grand Street, Newburgh, New York

For directions: www.stgeorgesch.org

For ticket and other event information: www.newburghchambermusic.org